Lyrics by Jon Black

Intro: E A E

E A
I was standing in the Mission

The walls were closing in

C#m A E
A winter night would be the story's end

B A E
Another breath and one more step I'll soon be free

E A
The world started spinning backwards

E A
The ground began to shake

C#m A E
The sleeping giant, he began to wake

B A E
I was just about to let it all fade away

B A
Now I'm going home torn apart

B A E
with a busted lip and a broken heart but I am alive

Outro: E A E
